Moodie has constructed the dolls over a period of 35 years, building each doll including insertion of eyes, application of hair, stuffing the body, hand painting of skin and features, sewing clothing and costumes and working on display modes. The Porcelain dolls depicted in styles from the 1800's to the present; Baby dolls to Father Christmas are varied in character as provided by the artist. An "in progress" doll with the tools used to work will be shown and Ms. Moodie will be present to discuss her design methods at the opening reception on Sunday, May 3 from 2:00 pm to 6:00 pm to which you are cordially invited. Selections from the Moodie Collection of Porcelain Dolls are available for purchase and offered through a Silent Auction with proceeds to benefit the Art Education Program of the Museum providing sponsorship to art teachers in our local area; art workshops and art exhibits to the public. Vintage Jewelry from the 1930's -1990's will also be shown from the Museum Collection and a new selection of slightly used art books are available in the Museum Shop.
